SPANISH FORK, UTAH, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1910

NUMBER 25

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

Big Program was a Grand Success. Afternoon Sports.

Monday the citizens of Spanish Fork celebrated Independence Day in a very fitting and a loyal manner.

In the morning a program was given in the City Pavilion to one of the largest crowds ever assembled in that place on such an occasion.

C. W. Booth was master of ceremonies. City Councilmen Albert Swenson offered the invocation.

The Traubadour of Salt Lake played very sweet and entertaining music. The congregation, led by Fred Lewis, rendered "America" in a very patriotic manner.

Mr. Sam Praeter of Lake Shore sang appropriate solo, entitled "Grand Old Flag". He was encored and sang "When Summer Bids Autumn Goodbye".

The Declaration of Independence was well rendered by Wm. R. Argyle. Hon. Elias C. Ashton was introduced as the master of ceremonies and delivered a very massacrful and eloquent oration. He spoke of the cause and reasons for the celebration of Independence Day and exhorted all loyal Americans to remember the spirit of the day and see that the legislators hold to the cause of the people.

Dale Beck accompanied by her sister Ruth on the piano and Glen Rowe on violin sang a solo very sweetly.

Miss Blanch Robertson gave a very interesting recitation.

Mr. Sam Praeter rendered "The Star Spangled Banner" in a very interesting manner.

Miss Byrl Angus recited a very beautiful and touching piece relating to the cause of temperance.

After music by the band, the chaplain offered the benediction and the service was dismissed.

In the afternoon various sports were held off at the City Square and the series Johnson fight given by rounds of the fight was received over independent Telephone, which put a line upstairs in the City Hall and prompt services. One noticeable feature of this was the fact that when Johnson was announced the victor it seemed to come as a blow to the audience.

In the evening large crowd gathered at both dancing pavilions and enjoyed themselves.

The Golf Widow.

Met. Saturday, 2:25 p. m.

Mr. T. Mashie at the window took a look wistfully into the June Sun.

Mr. T. Mashie appears, every detail of his costume suggesting a long and hard day's work. His cap is in his hand and his clubs within snatching distance. For the fraction of an instant he looks nonchalantly against the wall.

"Well, my dear," he asks, "how shall we spend our half holiday? Shall we go for a drive or walk? Because, as Mrs. T. Mashie is about to say, 'if you really don't care about these things, I have an engagement to pay golf at half past two and I must be off at once!'"

He set.

FITTED TO MAKE RULING.

York Jurist Refused to See Coroner Tried On in Legal Dispute Before Him.

ladies, you must excuse me. I know nothing whatever about this and if that awful-looking man you lay before me is a latter-day version of the one I don't wonder that he refuses to wear them and another money back. Please consider this case in a civil court. No, I refuse to allow the young man to do those cruel-looking things to my court."

Spoke Magistrate Barlow, who decided man, when he flatly refused to decide the issue as to whether or not the ample figure of a woman plaintiff would look comfortable in a No. 19 or a No. 20, says a Pittsburgh Dispatch's correspondent.

Mabel Connolly, in making preparations for her Easter party, purchased a pair of corsets. Calisher, Miss Connolly's mother, who she selected a pair of, but when she arrived at her home discovered that No. 18s had been put into the new corset. It was impossible, she said, to squeeze into the new corset. She was a "long-hipped" one. Connolly's hips are not so large. She hurried back to Mrs. Calisher and after a long dispute Mrs. Calisher refused to make an exchange.

The ceremony was performed by Bishop Larsen. The Press joins the friends and relatives of the young couple in wishing them a happy career.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by all dealers.

A copy of the United Commercial Travelers Outing edition of the Provo Post has been received at this office. It is printed in magazine form with two color cover and is one of the most tastefully arranged special editions we have received for a long time.

Its twenty-eight pages tell a very interesting story of the growth and development of one of the most prosperous and beautiful countries in the west—Utah County, with pictures of the scenic and industrial development.

Blood Transfusion.

There is nothing more dramatic and more dangerous than a transfusion of blood. To see the patient take on the rosy hue of health, to waken out of his lethargy, show an immediate live interest in his surroundings, and actually recover under the eye of the operator, we must not permit the transfusion to equal the normal amount transfused to overtax the system, or fear of suddenly overtaking the patient, but in the case of young children who have had severe hemorrhages there may be complete recovery without a period of convalescence, so that at the termination of the operation the patient is well.

COUNTY BASE BALL LEAGUE

Another Good Game

At the race track last Friday the fans were treated to the best game of ball ever seen on the local diamond.

Lehi, with Mooney, the Occidentals crack twirler in the box were confident of winning when the game began but Cook pitched wonderful ball and With errorless support shut the visitors out, not even allowing them to reach third base. Thomas for Spanish Fork made the winning run in the seventh by two hit, Cook's sacrifice and Wilken's single. Lund came to the bat with Wilkins and Hays on bases and fanned. Dart was hit in the head by a pitched ball and Rife took his place. With three men on bases Edwards fanned and the Lehi bunch was out of the worst hole in the game.

Happy Woman

Plenty of them in Spanish Fork, and Good Reason for it.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure.

No reason why any Spanish Fork readers should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Harriett Braithwaite, First Ward, Spanish Fork, Utah, says: "You are welcome to continue the publication of the statement I gave in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago, in order that other kidney sufferers may learn of this remedy and be benefited through its use. I had severe pains across the small of my back and at times it was almost impossible for me to attend to my house work. The kidney secretions passed irregularly and after standing for awhile, deposited a heavy sediment. When I stooped, a feeling of dizziness came over me and I was always languid and devoid of energy. I used several remedies which were recommended to but found no relief until I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the City Drug Co.'s Store. It is a pleasure to say a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they always act as represented."

That's the Way It Goes.

"I guess I made a mistake. I couldn't paint a doorstep for the old tenant."

"Well?"

"And now I've got to paint the entire house for the new tenant."—Wasington Herald.

Sense of Direction in Animals.

The remarkable faculty which cats, dogs, pigeons and other animals possess of returning in a straight line to a point of departure has awakened much curiosity on the part of naturalists. Some refer it to instinct, some to intelligence similar to man, some to an internal mechanism which makes the animal simply automata, but none of these attempted explanations does anything toward solving the mystery. One of our ablest modern scientific writers supposes that when an animal is carried to a great distance in a basket its fright makes it very attentive to the different odors which it encounters upon the way, and that the return of these odors, in inverse order, furnishes the needed guide.

Lost Maine Border Line.

There is a curious mixup all along the border where South Thomaston and St. George adjoin owing to the inability of anybody to find any record, survey or other means of determining where the line is. The location cannot be determined within half a mile and there are many hundreds of acres of land and many homesteads of which nobody knows whether they are in St. George or South Thomaston. One gentleman who has paid taxes and voted in St. George all his life, informs us that he does not now know where he lives. His property and poll have been assessed by both towns, both threaten to sell him out for taxes if he doesn't pay. He positively refuses to pay taxes in both towns, and for the present, until somebody can tell him where he lives will not pay in either.—Rockland Opinion.

SCHOOL CAUCUS HELD LAST NIGHT

C. W. Booth Nominated for Trustee by Big Majority

ELECTION TO BE HELD MONDAY

Citizens' Meeting to be Held Before the Election

A citizens meeting was held at the Central School house last night for the purpose of nominating a School Trustee for a term of three years. The meeting was called to order at 9:20 by Chairman Marinus Larsen. There was a good attendance and good order prevailed throughout the meeting. Those nominated were Dr. Joseph Hughes who received 15 votes, Benjamin Evans who received 2, and C. W. Booth who received 53, a majority of 36 votes over the other two.

The annual meeting for the purpose of reading the financial report of the School District will be held at 1 o'clock next Monday and the election for a trustee from 3 until 7 o'clock of the same day.

OBITUARY

JOHN HUFF LAID TO REST.

Funeral Services Held in Lake Shore Meeting House

Funeral services were held in the Lake Shore meeting house, Wednesday July 6th, over the remains of Mr. John Huff who died of diabetes, on the 4th. The congregation and the floral tributes were very beautiful. The speakers were Andrew Ferguson and Bishop Argyle both of whom bore a faithful testimony to the moral worth of the deceased. The ward choir furnished the music.

He came to Utah in 1862 and has lived at Lake Shore for 26 years. He leaves a widow and a number of grown up sons and daughters. He was 96 years of age and was an honest, intelligent, industrious citizen and was well respected by all who knew him.

Old Pictures

Have you an old daguerrotype, tintype or any other old picture that is fast fading away that you value very highly?

We make a specialty of copying old pictures and will for a short time give fifteen photos for the price of a dozen. We will also give equally as good a reduction on life size portraits in crayon water color or pastel. We will not harm nor lose your old picture. Bring them in now to Stahmann's Studio.

Pre-Columbian Voyages.

Concerning the subject of the discovery of America, John Fluke says: "Nothing can be clearer from a survey of the whole subject than that these pre-Columbian voyages were quite barren of historic importance. In point of colonization they produced the two ill-fated settlements on the Greenland coast and nothing more. Otherwise they made no real addition to the stock of geographical knowledge. They wrought no effect whatever upon the European mind. In no sense was any real contact established between the eastern and western halves of our planet, until the great voyage of Columbus in 1492."
